The world is a beautiful place to be born into
if you don't mind happiness

not always being

so very much fun

The world is a beautiful place to be born into
if you don't mind some people dying

or maybe only starving

all the time

if you don't much mind

Oh the world is a beautiful place to be born into

some of the time
which isn't half so bad if it isn't you

in the higher places

a few dead minds

now and then

or a bomb or two

or such other improprieties

in your upturned faces

is prey to

as our Name Brand society

and its men of extinction

with its men of distinction

and other patrolmen

and its priests

and congressional investigations
that our fool flesh

and its various segretions

is heir to

Yes the world is the best place of all

for a lot of such things as

making the fun scene
and just generally

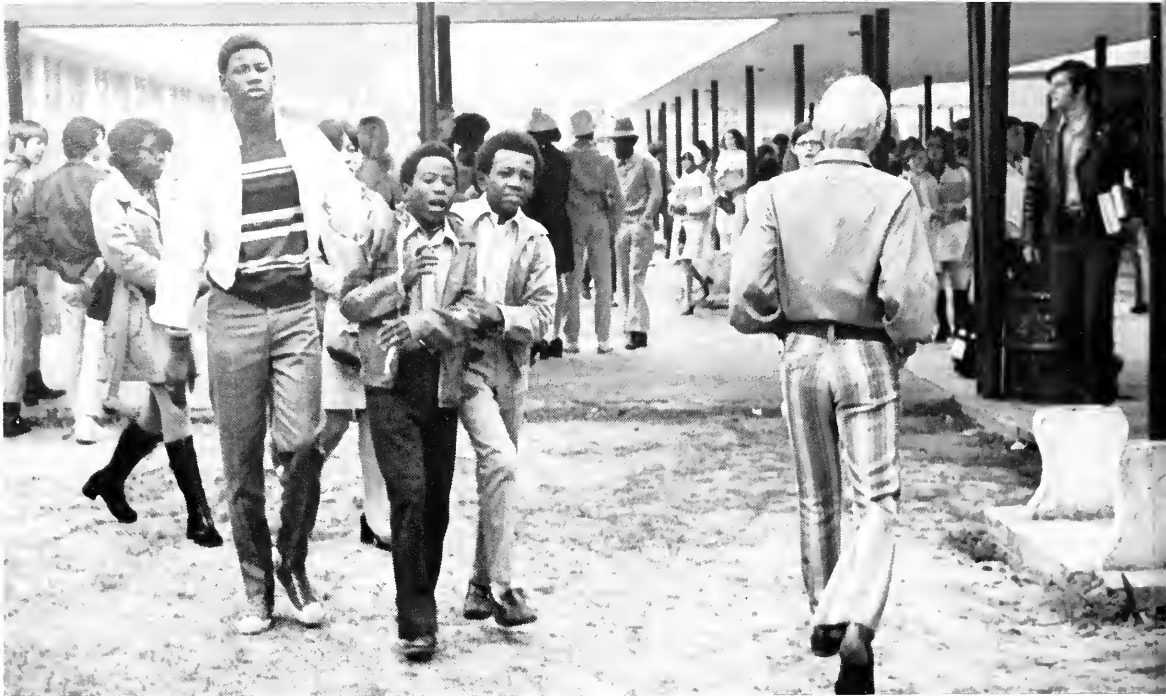

'living it up'

Yes
but then right in the middle of it

comes the smiling

mortician

The world is caving in around us. The air is heavy, suffocating, like some great, pressing weight. A terrible cloud hangs looming over us, we are spinning round and round in a haze. Thoughts rattle through our heads like loose puzzle pieces. Reaching out, we try to grasp, to get a hold on something, to make it all click into place, but nothing fits.

WH

(Gosh Darn It!)

Y?

Profanity is the attempt of a feeble mind to express itself forcibly.

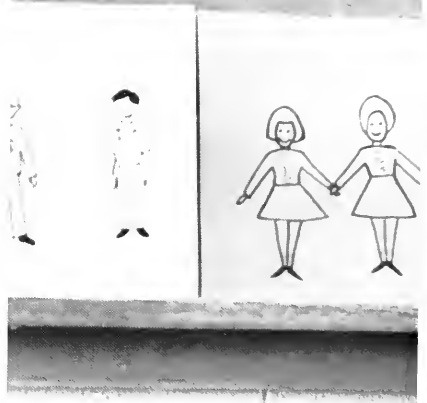

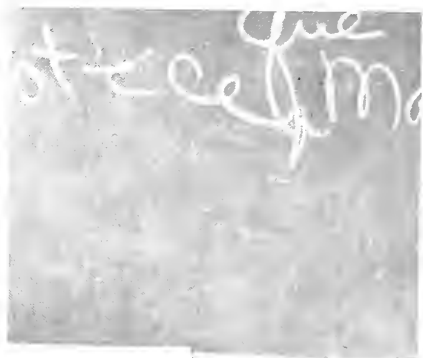

Why are we so flustered? Why can't we cope? Life was not always like this, so congested, so full of pressure and pain. There was a time when life was worth living. What have we lost? What are we looking for? Where is the key piece, the missing link, to make it all fall into place? Was it the price of growing up?

Childhood—was it so long ago? Has the world changed so much since then, or was the change in us? What about childhood attracts us, calls back fond memories? When we were young, we didn't worry about war, pollution, racism. We worried about rain, or the flat on our bike, or whether Superman would get there on time.

Look at the faces of children. What they have, we once had too. Their fresh eager outlook on life was once ours, only to be discarded along with paper dolls and teddy bears. And yet, we search for it even now. So if we want to run and jump or stand on our heads or twirl on our toes or blow soap bubbles-why not? Find an old stuffed toy and squeeze out some of the love. What was lost can be found. The answer? The thing we are looking for-a return to innocence.

Jim
Even though
I don't know you
too well I still
know who you are.
Let's meet nice seeing you around I feel as if I know you already cause that's all Debra talks about. See you must be a pretty great guy.
Maybe someday I will talk to you
congratulations for making it thru your senior year. Love you

Tracing the lines of memories... clinging to them with no avail... watching the only world they have known for twelve years melt slowly into the past... Taking a last glance at a world of innocence lost to them forever... There is no turning back. But

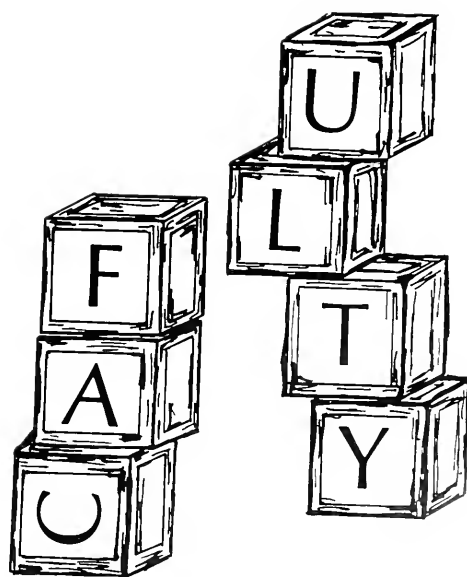

Seeing the need for unity in a world of turmoil... Believing that everyone is a part of everything, that no man is an island... A source of limitless potential with its face to the future, eager to take on the world.

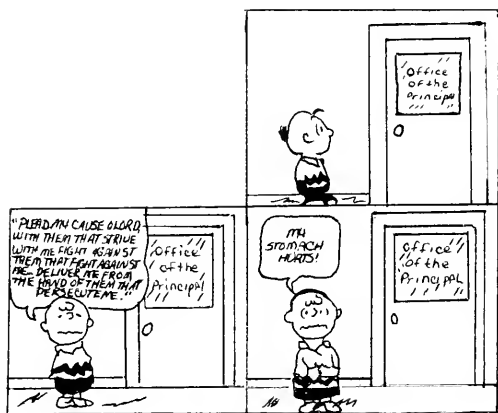

The Seniors of '72... 213 individual pieces welded together with hope and determination to form one complete, functioning body... 213 reasons for making this year "The Best".

Believing firmly that they are the leaders of tomorrow, we dedicate the 1971-72 Atomsmasher to the Senior Class, 1972.

NURSE AND PVT

But there weren't any burger stands at the Civic Center!

"They don't even carry guns."
 "You don't need guns to smoke in the parking lot."
 "One of them winked at me yesterday."

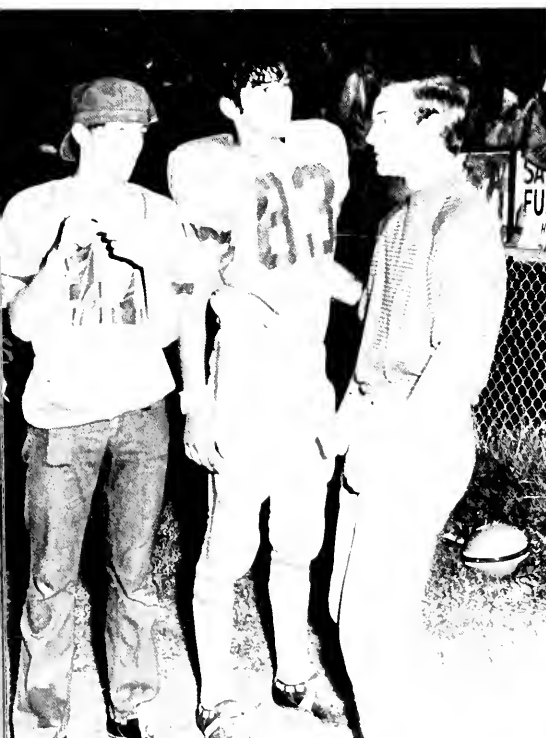

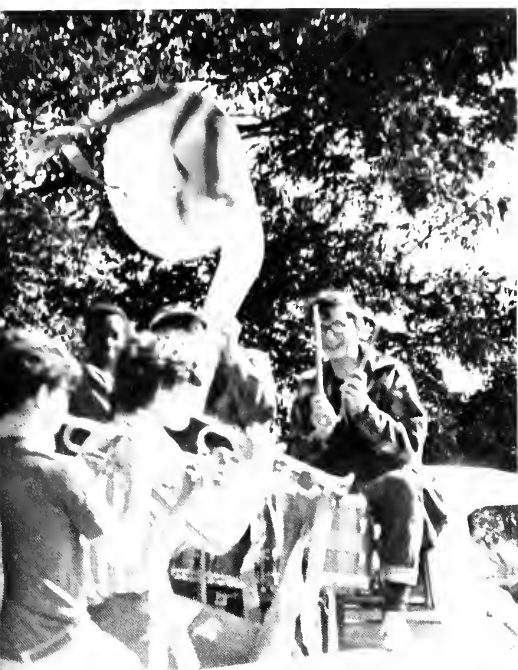

"Harambee?"
 "Yah, that's Swahili for 'bull together'."

"Teachers, pardon the interruption. Mable Oxenstierner, your mother said to ride the bus home, your piano lessons were called off."

"What's a split lunch?"
 "Half at Shoney's, half at Burger King."

Sorry, Bud.

Humpty-Dumpty sat on a wall,
Humpty-Dumpty had a great fall.
All the king's horses, and all the king's men,
Tried to put Humpty-Dumpty together again.

CHORUS

Sing a song of sixpence, a packet full of rye;
Four-and twenty blackbirds, baked in a pie.
When the pie was opened, the birds began to sing;
Was not that a dainty dish to set before the King;

Union Camp

Why on earth would they use paper to help launch a moon shot?

The paper is used in this 321-foot Apollo service tower. As honeycomb panel cores. Laminated to aluminum "skins".

The panels form the enclosing wall of the 12-foot-wide tower base. And the huge hinged gates swing easy. And precious pounds are can flatten the railroad wheels when they are not in motion.

Union Camp's honeycomb has been used for other uses—both commercial and residential construction. Everything from floors to walls and to roofs. Even the sky isn't the limit.

The paper for Union Camp's Honeycomb is manufactured at the huge Savannah Complex, the world's largest pulp-to-container am.

It would be hard to remember everything we've done on just one short page. We have really done some wonderful things in the past 6 months. I know I'll never forget any of them. Just don't ever forget the Christmas holidays or Chess' and Clifton's party on Jan. 5th. Now I'm taking like everything is over, but if you think the past few months were fun just wait until this summer, and next year, and the next etc...

You've really helped me alot. Especially by making me realize how childish I've acted about certain things. (I think you know what I'm talking about.)

I know Mrs. Olivetti will really miss us next year, but just think, if it hadn't been for her we might not have met each other.

Take care of "Tul" and don't let anyone else bother him.

I love you, (always)
Deb

Jimmy, I not
well, I not
going to be like everyone else who wrote its been nice knowing, you know that.
I'm glad that we got to be better friends. I wish for you + what's her name All the luck in the world.
P.S. You better be good to Deb and never hurt her. LOVE YA
Beth

Our world exists in a sea of problems and pressures and as a part we are swept up in its maze of confusion. Hopelessly we seem to be struggling in a world alien to the one we once knew. This peace, gone forever, was one of kind and carefree pleasures. A place of simplicity and ignorance where we once lived our dreams and dreamed our lives. The place only a child would know. Now that we are grown and away, we long to be back, once again, to the simple pleasures and silly games that we once played. We try to remember how to return, but all that's left are the memories - and a tear

Hello there Jim.

Well its really been a blast this year. We've had some hilarious times together. I've enjoyed being in 1st and 3rd period with you. I want to wish you and Debra the best of luck. Look for me this summer. Have a good time and be real good (Ita Ita), I want to thank you for the help in that little notebook.

Your friend

It's been great fun in Cont. Problems

say the same for English.
But all in all I was a pretty good year.

Well, I hope you are well, and the more I hear from you, and will continue to be, you please. I am so glad to hear you are coming to our land, and I will be sure that you will find it is not a slight thing. Remember me, please, to all your family, but in walks on you, cause they will be up for you. I am so glad to hear the Boone's Farm plowing, and may you be able to get it done.
